

Kassel University, Germany

DGA students have the opportunity to participate in an exchange program with Kassel University in Kassel, Germany. Tuition is paid to Rutgers University, as a normal semester, and students then take courses at Kassel University which transfer over to be counted as DGA courses. Students must purchase health insurance and housing is available through Kassel at a moderate price. Semesters are divided into two in Germany, a winter (October 15-February 15) and a summer (April 15-July 15). The deadlines for applying to are July 15 for winter and January 15 for summer.

For further information please click here to be directed to Kassel University's informational website for Rutgers' students.